

Introduction:

The Data Privacy Policy requires all individuals working on behalf of the Association—including Board members, executives, employees, consultants, and volunteers—to safeguard the privacy of data concerning donors, contributors, volunteers, and beneficiaries. Such data must not be shared with anyone except within very narrow parameters, as detailed in the following sections. Furthermore, the policy mandates that such data be used solely for the Association's purposes and in the interest of the Association.

Scope:

This policy applies to all individuals working on behalf of the Association—whether Board members, executives, employees, volunteers, or consultants—regardless of their specific roles or positions within the Association.
